

From East to West

1. From east to west, from shore to shore Let earth a - wake and sing
2. Be - hold, the world's Cre - a - tor wears The fash - ion of a slave;
3. For this how won - drous - ly He wrought! A maid - en in her place,
4. He shrank not from the ox - en's stall, Nor scorned the man - ger bed;
5. To shep - herds poor the Lord Most High, Great Shep - herd, was re - vealed.
6. "All glo - ry be to God a - bove, And on the earth be peace

The ho - ly Child whom Ma - ry bore, The Christ, the Lord, the King.
Our ver - y flesh the God - head bears, A hu - man race to save.
Be - came, in ways be - yond all thought, The ves - sel of His grace.
And He, whose boun - ty feed - eth all, At Ma - ry's breast was fed.
And while the an - gels in the sky Sang praise a - bove the field:
To all who long to taste His love, Till time it - self shall cease."

Music: Anonymous English, 1400s; harm. Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1906
Text: Coelius Sedulius, c.450; tr. John Ellerton, 1964

THIS ENDRIS NIGHT
8 6. 8 6.