Be - fore You placed all things in space, From ev - er - last - ing You are God.
As grass that sprouts yet fades at dusk, We're born, we live, but pass un - seen.
But still they're filled with pain and sin, Soon gone, and then we live no more.
Re - turn, O Lord, ac - cept our praise, That through our lives Your love may shine.
That praise may ev - er come to You, And un - to all, Your love be shown.
